

Abraham Hernández is President of VITALIS, a retirement consulting firm and pension fund manager. He is a full member of the Instituto de Actuarios Portugueses and of the Colegio Nacional de Actuarios (Mexico) and is past president of the Pensions and Social Security Section of the International Actuarial Association.

Abraham is also a board member of investment funds, pension funds, family offices, public and private companies. He co-founded Miles for Retirement, an app that allows people to save for retirement through daily consumption and he recently won the Prize for Academic Research granted by Portuguese insurance and pensions regulator (ASF).