

CV corto, Noviembre 2018Personal and professional details:

Family Name: Taltavull de La Paz

Surname: Paloma

Especialization (Codes UNESCO): 530201, 530205, 530401, 530802, 530904, 531203

Paloma Taltavull de La Paz is full Professor on Applied Economics Department at the University of Alicante, Spain and she has been visiting scholar at University of California at Berkeley, Georgia State University and Florida International University and MIT- Massachusetts Institute of Technology. Her research focus is in Housing Markets, Real Estate Markets and Macroeconomics and energy and housing markets.

She has written more than 40 book chapters and books, around 75 academic articles in Spanish and International journals since 1996 (J of Real Estate Research, Journal of European Real Estate Research, International Journal of Housing Market and Analysis, Urban Studies, Housing Studies or International Real Estate Review among others). Economistas or Papeles de Economía Española, are two of the Spanish publications with her articles. She has participated in more than 35 research projects in housing and urban economics refereed to Spanish market since 1992 and two H2020 projects related to energy issues and housing/real estate markets.

Professor Taltavull belongs to different academic Societies committees being active on them, like to European Real Estate Society (ERES) since 1994, American Real Estate Society (ARES) since 1992, International Real Estate Society (IRES) since 1999 and has been president of ERES during 2002 and IRES during 2010. She also is the Chair of REM (Real Estate Advisory Group), on the Housing and Land Management Secretariat of the United Nations- UNECE. She won the 1997 Faculty of Economics PhD Award at the University of Alicante, II FICIA President Foundation 1996 Prize for the best Shoe Sector Research, the 2006 IRES Service Award and 2009, 2013 and 2014 Award of Excellence Outstanding Reviewer from by Emerald Literaty Club. She is currently Chief-Editor of the Journal of European Real Estate Research.

She was Outstanding Academic Member of the Housing Rent Market Observatory at the Spanish Ministry of Housing (2006-2009), and she led the launch of the Biblioteca Virtual Miguel de Cervantes (Virtual Library ‘Miguel de Cervantes’), the first virtual library in Europe and in Spanish language, in 1999.

Referring to education projects, she has been the head of the Real Estate Undergraduated (Título Propio en Estudios Inmobiliarios) at the University of Alicante (1996-2013) and responsible of the Curriculum design and coordination. Professor Taltavull organized the 1st and 13th ERES Education Seminars in 2005 and 2017, 8th ERES Annual Conference and the yearly congress on Applied Economics (1998-2012) and AREUEA International Conference in 2016m at the Alicante University.